Gentlemen

A friend who has spent the past twenty years in Shansi, northern China, and who is to be in town for a few days shortly, has some ancient Chinese coins about which he would like to see some interested authority here. Can you tell me whether there is anyone in the Society who might be interested in seeing them?

Very truly yours,

Sidney D Barnes

Dear Madam:

If you can bring the Chinese coins described in your letter of December 4th, to our Museum on either Friday or Saturday of this week, Mr. Wood, our Curator, will be glad to go over them with you. If neither of these days is convenient, I should suggest your telephoning and arranging an appointment with him next week.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
